

RACHAEL BOSCH

CEO, Founder, Trainer and Senior Coach

Fringe Professional Development

Connect on LinkedIn

Rachael is a trailblazer in workplace communication and leadership development, leveraging nearly two decades of experience in talent management within the legal industry. In 2017, she founded Fringe Professional Development to revolutionize how professionals navigate communication and interpersonal challenges, transforming them into catalysts for career advancement and organizational success.

Under Rachael's leadership, Fringe PD has become synonymous with practical, high-impact coaching and training programs that drive results while fostering connection and engagement. Her frameworks have empowered professionals across the legal industry to tackle complex challenges confidently, often infused with her signature approachability and humor. Additionally, Rachael partners with organizations to solve their most intricate interpersonal and leadership dilemmas, delivering tailored consulting solutions.

Rachael's influence spans the globe, having coached hundreds and delivered workshops to thousands of professionals at premier conferences and organizations. Her mission is clear: to help professionals unlock their potential, build stronger relationships, and bring humanity back to the workplace while equipping them with actionable strategies that make a difference.

CREDENTIALS AND EXPERIENCE

Leading Professional Service Firms
Harvard Business School Executive Education

Mediating Disputes
Harvard Law School Executive Education

Women in Leadership
Cornell University

Brain-Based Certified Coach
NeuroLeadership Institute

DISC and EQ-i 2.0
Certified to Assess and Train

Forbes Coaches Council
Contributing Member Since 2019

Professional Development Consortium
Trusted Advisor

THOUGHT LEADERSHIP

Published in: Bloomberg Law | Law360 | Law.com | Forbes | NALP PD Quarterly

Featured in: Law360 Pulse | PLI Press | Legal Talk Network

FRINGE
PROFESSIONAL DEVELOPMENT